

Social and Behavioral Sciences Faculty

Ernest Wiegand, M.A.

Professor and Coordinator, Archaeology as an Avocation Program

Office location: West Campus 236

Office phone: (203) 857-7377

Email address: ewiegand@ncc.commnet.edu

Academic Degrees

M.A. Hunter College (CUNY)

B.S. University of Connecticut

Archaeology

Archaeology as an Avocation

Certificate Program

This program is designed to train the amateur archaeologist. Extensive field work, directed toward the rescue and preservation of local prehistory and history, is offered. Certification should enable the student to participate effectively in archaeological excavations at home or abroad.

Required Courses			Semester Hours
ANT 121	Introduction to Archaeology		3
ANT 223	Advanced Techniques in Archaeology		4
ANT 131	World Prehistory		3
ANT 140	Indians of the Americas		3
Choose one of the following electives:
ANT 229	Historical Archaeology
	OR
GLG 123	Physical Geology
	OR
CSA 105	Introduction to Software Applications		3
			<hr/>
			16